The Chieq a doctor who says the time is near at hand when eugenics will replace love ought to get somebody to pinch him awake.

"Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is the best remedy for that often-fatal disease—group. It has been used with success in our family for eight years." —Mrs. L. Whetstone, Buffalo, N. Y.

Now it is said that barbers make men blind by steaming their faces and eyes with wood alcohol. In the old days they talked 'em blind and deaf and dumb.

It is said there is about $12,792,000,000 in the world. And 60 per cent of the inhabitants control the last six figures.—Balmers Star.

GEOERTOWN, TEXAS, J. A. Kimbro, says: "For several years past Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been my household remedy for all coughs, colds, and lung troubles. It has given permanent relief in a number of cases of obstinate coughs and colds." Contains no opiates, Refuse substitutes. Sold by R. W. Lanning.

Except for President Wilson and a Democratic congress it would have been another Merry Christmas to Wall street and the tariff-fattened trust.

Mr. Bryan says that a man can honestly earn $1,000,000 in an ordinary lifetime, and every parographer in the country agrees with him as to the earning.

Heavy, impure blood makes a muddy, pimply complexion, headaches, nausea, indigestion. Thin blood makes you weak, pale and sickly. For pure blood, sound digestion, use Burdock Blood Bitters. $1.00 at all stores.

Luke, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, says "there are a lot of pins in the lap of luxury," but he's speaking from hearsay evidence; he never got close enough to luxury to be stuck.

Cured of Liver Complaint.

"I was suffering with liver complaint," says Iva Smith of Point Blank, Texas, and decided to try a 25¢ box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and I am happy to say that I am completely cured and can recommend them to every one." For sale by all dealers.

The Democratic party helps the Merry Christmas and Happy New Year stunts along by contributing a reform in the currency and an abatement of the tariff graft to the people of America.

President Woodrow Wilson is the embodiment and fulfillment of Emerson's "American Scholar."

Your heart beats 99,986 times in 24 hours. If you don't believe it count the beats.—Cincinnati Inquirer.

A London physician claims to have discovered an anti love serum. Up to date there has been no great demand for it.

The Man Who Neglects Himself

When his condition points to kidney trouble takes an unwise risk. Backache, pain and soreness over the kidneys, nervous or dizzy spells, poor sleep, are all symptoms that will disappear with the regular use of Foley Kidney Pills. They put the kidneys and bladder in a clean, strong and healthy condition. Sold by R. W. Lanning.

A leading role in Grand Opera is now being taken by a German blacksmith. Who will be the first to enter an agreement to say nothing about the anvil chorus.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Do you think your grandmother would believe present-day doctors' when they say red flannel is not a rheumatism corrective? Not much; they wore that kind of petticoats too long.

Secretary of State William J. Bryan is to be in Kansas City on Sunday, January 4, at which time he will deliver an address in Convention hall to the student volunteer convention. The mere announcement that Mr. Bryan is to speak there will fill the big hall to overflowing. It will not be necessary to give the subject of his address—no matter what he talks about, his remarks will contain something of value to his hearers and for the good of the entire people.—Cass County Democrat.

The leaders of the Progressive party in St. Louis at a conference in the Planters' hotel raised a guarantee fund of $500 to defray the traveling expenses and the hotel bills of the orators. Bill Moose candidates will be nominated in every congressional district in the country, says Judge Norton, the State leader of the new party. The St. Louis Progressives will affiliate with the National Progressive party, and speakers will be sent out all over the country, all of which will meet with the hearty approval of Missouri Democrats.

Coughs That Prevent Sleep

These coughs are wearing and if they "hang on," can run one down physically and lower the vital resistance to disease. Mr. Bob Ferguson, 319 Pine St., Green Bay, Wis., writes:

"I was greatly troubled with a bad cough that kept me awake nights. Two small bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured me." Sold by R. W. Lanning.

A charity ball in Kansas City has been abandoned on account of anti-tango agitation, thus revealing the long-concealed fact that some people go to charity balls to do something besides helping the poor.—New York Press.

According to the statistics deposits in Missouri banks are 14 million dollars more than they were a year ago. This is a great increase for one year and shows that Missouri is in a prosperous condition, and should put to shame some of the calamity howlers who stated that there would be a "panic" if the Democrats got in power. Memphis Democrat.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effective and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

The Democratic party helps the Merry Christmas and Happy New Year stunts along by contributing a reform in the currency and an abatement of the tariff graft to the people of America.

The biggest thing to be thankful for this year of our Lord 1913 is that Uncle Sam has gone out of partnership with Big Business and is now conducting the nation's business at the old stand all alone by himself and he has his hat but one clerk and his name is Woodrow Wilson.—Louisiana Press-Journal.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to feel very seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sausalito, Cal. Sold by all dealers.

And to think that after all the predictions by Republican stand-patters of dreadful things to follow the passage of a bill reducing the tariff and another reforming the currency and yet both are in effect with absolutely no evil effect on the business interests of the country. The predicted panics and failures, the closing of factories and similar things so freely predicted never did and never will happen.—Glasgow Missourian.
